

Special Voices - Parent/Carer Forum for Slough

Special Voices are a group of parent/carers of children, young people & adults with disabilities/additional needs & is the parent/carer forum for Slough. We are all volunteers working in partnership with the Slough Children First, Local Authority, CCG's and voluntary organisations to help shape and develop future services in Slough through participation and co-production with your views & experiences that you share with us, with these we hope to shape services for all children/young people/adults with additional needs in Slough, together.

Our Carers Rights Day- Friday 26th November 9.30am – 12.30pm

Cippenham Baptist Church Hall. SL1 5QS

This year, no large venue, no providers with information stands it is just too soon to have such extra-large events, next year will be different!!!

What we will have is: cake, Danish pastries, more cake & then maybe some more Danish pastries with a few scones & cream to add a touch of colour

Let's get together, as they say eat cake & carry on

Special Voices need committee members & volunteers as the workload increases by the day

If you can spare some time, skills, ideas & more then please contact us, or just chat to one of us at our events. Training will be provided with the offer of further training of your choice such as first aid. Why not give us a call to find out more on how you can help parent/carers of addition needs children/young people & adults & the forum for Slough.

Look forward to hearing from you
