Issue 8 - February 2026

Special Voices - Parent/Carers Together

WELCOME - Special Voices are a voluntary group set up & run by parent/carers of children/young people & adults with additional needs to help provide information, support & guidance to other parent/carers & the wider community in Slough. We rely on donations, both in goods, services & fundraising events. We have been very fortunate to have many supporters & thank them for their continued support.
